

Announcing:

Group SuperVision: Clinician Mastery Learning Circle

For experienced clinicians & graduates seeking mental health licensure

with Barry Erdman, LCSW, DCSW

Focus:

- Developing & Mastering Clinician Competency
- In-depth Case Consultation
- Methods: selecting/refining appropriate tools for change
- Becoming/Being Change Agent: engaging healing presence
- Mindful Insight: being present/listening within/seeing, sensing, listening, minding
- Strategic Skills Enhancement: becoming brief, hypnotic language for change, more
- Relational Systems: guiding couples, families, groups
- Integration: conventional, alternative, latest treatment frameworks
- Creative Process: breathing, space, metaphor, humor, visualization, storytelling
- Existential/Transpersonal: values, beliefs, spirituality, mind/body/beyond
- Ethical Practice Case Review: standards and challenges
- Clinician Self Care: balance, burnout, stress management/prevention
- Practice Management Business How To's: marketing, record keeping, forms, billing, insurance, legal compliance, internet, electronic media, security

Thursdays Bi-Monthly 4:30-6pm

1.5 hour group meetings, limited to 8 participants
3450 Penrose Place, Suite 210, Boulder CO 80301
$50

Register/Questions: 303 444-1404
be@BoulderTherapist.com

—

Barry Erdman, ACSW, LCSW, DCSW

MSW, University of Denver 1983

Psychotherapy Practice Boulder, Individual Clinical Supervisor; Critical Incident Response Consultant

Completed Clinical Supervision Training Seminars I & II, Sandra Holman, PhD, 1998

Boulder NASW Social Worker of the Year Award, 2002 recipient

Colorado NASW Board President, 2003-05

Coordinator, InterfaceBoulder.org; Chairperson, Citizen's Review Panel, Boulder County Commissioners;
Founder, Boulder Social Work Private Practice Network; ProBono Therapist, Boulder County AIDS
Project; Child protection case worker; Boulder County DSS; Outpatient clinician, Boulder MHC, 1982-87